“Really nice bouquet and palate of Gris. A dry style with tension and poise on the palate. Flavours of white orchard fruits especially apple and tart green pear. Spice and silty minerality. Lengthy finish and well made. Drink now and through 2021.”

“Honeyed lemon drops and jasmine spark intrigue on the nose. Pear and honeysuckle light up the palate with body, along with a fine, crisp minerality.”

Michael Cooper

“Estate-grown at Cheviot, north of Waipara, the 2018 vintage (4*) is sturdy, with generous stone-fruit and spice flavours, showing a distinct touch of complexity, and a dry finish. Best drinking 2020+.”

“Creamy. Lightly sweet and tingly with notes of starfruit, lemon custard and candied ginger.”

 Wine Review*

“Bright straw-yellow colour with light golden-green hues, a little lighter on the edge. The nose is elegant in proportion with well-packed aromas of white and yellow stonefruits and subtle white floral notes, hints of pears and nuances of mouthwatering minerals.”
